

Theme World Expo 2010 Youth Summer Camp

Recruit Young Students of 12 to 18 Years of Age

Opening time: July 4 – August 2, 2010

Objective:

The World Expo 2010 is to be held in Shanghai, China – one of the world’s most prestigious and vigorous metropolises. By hosting this summer camp, Shanghai Yong Qin International Education Co., and Panda Travel USA are committed to creating a Chinese learning environment for the students to improve their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. The summer camp offers an opportunity for the foreign youth to actually practice the language through traveling and engaging in live conversations with the local Chinese Youth. One of our special programs is “The Lectures on Expo 2010 Theme Pavilions”, which is designed to help the students increase their Chinese vocabulary, broaden their horizon and enrich their knowledge in architectural design, construction and new material application of the top-notch architecture in the world. Seeing is believing. This is the right time to be an eye witness on China’s another greatest accomplishment milestone in 21st century. This will greatly stimulate the students’ interest in learning Chinese culture and history. Furthermore, learning Chinese, refining character and traveling 3 Chinese Ancient Capitals, Beijing, Xi’an and Hangzhou are the three major objectives for this spectacular summer camp.

Specialties:

- Supported by Shanghai Overseas Chinese Union, ¥1,000 -3,000 will be awarded to an excellent student in 3-week Chinese class.
- Supported by Shanghai Telecom, a cell phone/SIM Card will be provided for each camp student’s convenience, no international roaming fee, only pay local charges during the 30-day summer camp.
- Experienced Chinese language professionals will teach the class, including those from East China Normal University - the only international Chinese Study University in southern China authorized by Hanban - the Office of Chinese Language International Council.

➤Camp site is set in the largest training base in China. The first class modern facilities will provide the students with not only excellent language training programs but also various games and sports activities to help improve each individual's teamwork skills and physical strength.

➤Uniqueness of our program lies in the special itineraries and bilingual tour guides intended for students who are in different Chinese levels and culture background/knowledge.
